

2ND GLOBAL WORKSHOP ON INTEGRATED MONITORING OF SDG 6 ON WATER AND SANITATION

9 December 2021 and 8–10 February 2022, online

What have we achieved since 2018? Stock-taking of SDG 6 monitoring

Day 1, 8 February 2022, 16.00-18.00 CET

16:00-16:15 CET	Welcome  Welcome address, interactive activity and introduction of participants 16:00CET Day 1 Plenary            Mr Gilbert F. Hounou, President of the International Fund for Agricultural Development and UN-Water Chair            Will Reidhead, UN-Water
16:15-16:25 CET	Summary of the 2020 Data Drive – what are the results?  Overview of the reporting processes, capacity building support provided and resulting data availability, across all indicators Maria Schade, UN-Water
16:25-17:10 CET	Breakout groups  Exchange on monitoring experience for the different indicators, including on the reporting process and capacity building support. All participants to choose which group to join. 16:25CET Group 611-621 (drinking water/sanitation)            Rick Johnston, WHO and Tom Slaymaker, UNICEF 16:25CET Group 631 (wastewater)            Florian Thevenon, UN-Habitat            Andrew Shantz, WHO 16:25CET Group 632 (water quality)            Stuart Warner, Kilian Christ and Melchior Elsler, UNEP

	16:25CET Group 641-642 (water use/scarcity) Lucie Chocholata and Adelaide Sander, FAO 16:25CET Group 651 (IWRM) Maija Bertule, UNEP Colin Herron, GWP 16:25CET Group 652 (transboundary cooperation) Alistair Rieu Clarke and Sarah Tiefenauer-Linardon, UNECE Aurélien Dumont, UNESCO 16:25CET Group 661 (ecosystems) Stuart Crane and Torsten Bondo, UNEP 16:25CET Group 6a1-6b1 (capacity building/participation) Marina Takane, WHO
17:10- 17:55 CET	How to achieve collaboration across sectors? Panel discussion with country representatives on cross-cutting and institutional issues related to SDG 6 monitoring and reporting Return to 16:00CET Day 1 Plenary Moderator: Ms Maggie Kossida, UN-Water Mr Marcus Fuckner, National Water and Sanitation Agency, Brazil Mr Eugene Caine, National WASH Commission, Liberia Ms Niyotwambaza Hitimana Christine, Rwanda Water Resources Board, Rwanda Ms Rathna Kewal, Ministry of Spatial Planning and Environment, Suriname
17:55- 18:00 CET	Session highlights and closing Graham Alabaster, UN-Habitat

From data to policy

Day 2, 9 February 2022, 16.00-18.00 CET

16:00-16:05 CET	Welcome 16:00CET Day 2 Plenary Tommaso Abrate, WMO
16:05-16:35 CET	How are policy-makers and decision-makers using data? Case study on the use of SDG indicators for water and sanitation policy and planning in Tunisia Mr Abderrahman Ouasli, Ministry of Agriculture, Water Resources and fisheries, Tunisia Case study from Colombia on how environmental and economic accounting can support SDG 6 progress Ms Elena Rodríguez Yate, National Statistics Department, Colombia Case study on the analysis and dissemination of SDG indicators in Italy Ms Simona Ramberti and Ms Giovanna Tagliacozzo, Italian National Institute of Statistics, Italy
16:35-17:15 CET	Breakout groups Exchange of regional experiences on the use of data for policy- and decision-making. Country participants are pre-registered for the groups. International participants to choose which group to join (all groups have interpretation into English). 16:35CET Group Africa/Americas (French) Rapporteur: Ms Chadhouliati Abdou Chakour, Ministry of Water and Hydrocarbons Energy, Comoros 16:35CET Group Africa/Asia (English) Rapporteur: Mr Kwabena Asare Gyasi Duku, Ministry of Sanitation and Water Resources, Ghana 16:35CET Group South America (Spanish) Rapporteur: TBC 16:35CET Group Central America and Caribbean (Spanish) Rapporteur: TBC 16:35CET Group Americas/Europe (English) Rapporteur: Ms Danka Thalmeinerova, Ministry of Environment, Slovakia

17:15-17:40 CET	How to improve data uptake? Presentation of highlights from the breakout groups Return to 16:00CET Day 2 Plenary Rapporteurs
17:40-17:55 CET	Great water and sanitation communication – examples from countries Presentation of examples from countries that showcase good practices for communicating data.
17:55-18:00 CET	Session highlights and closing Alice Aureli, UNESCO

Needs and priorities for the future

Day 3, 10 February 2022, 16.00-18.00 CET

16:00-16:10 CET	Welcome Summary of highlights from Day 1 and Day 2 16:00CET Day 3 Plenary Rick Johnston, WHO
16:10-16:40 CET	Real time consulting in breakout groups Help four countries address a specific challenge they (and others) are experiencing. All participants to choose which group to join. 16:10CET 1st Group El Salvador (Citizen data) Should communities and civil society be involved in the monitoring of water and sanitation, and which incentives and tools can help them to carry it out? Mr Roberto Ceron, Ministry of Environment and Natural Resources, El Salvador 16:10CET 1st Group Liberia (Water quality) What steps can a country take to expand its water quality monitoring and data management? Mr Amos Z. Tomah, Liberia 16:10CET 1st Group South Africa (Gender) How can SDG 6 data be used to mainstream gender in water and sanitation policies? Ms Petunia Ramunenyiwa, Department of Water and Sanitation, South Africa 16:10CET 1st Group Netherlands (Extreme water events) Which additional steps and equipment are necessary for monitoring programs in the context of extreme water events? Mr Ronald van Dokkum, Ministry of Infrastructure and the Environment, Netherlands

16:40-16:50 CET	Phase 3 of the UN-Water Integrated Monitoring Initiative for SDG 6  Presentation of initial ideas for the third phase of IMI-SDG6 (2023-2026) Return to 16:00CET Day 3 Plenary          Will Reidhead, UN-Water
16:50-17:20 CET	Breakout groups  Interactive exchange on needs and priorities for SDG 6 monitoring and reporting, based on level of SDG 6 reporting. Country participants are pre-registered for the groups. International participants to choose which group to join. 16:50CET 2nd Group A (0-5 indicators)          Rapporteur: TBC 16:50CET 2nd Group B (6-7 indicators)          Rapporteur: TBC 16:50CET 2nd Group C (8-9 indicators)          Rapporteur: TBC 16:50CET 2nd Group D (10-11 indicators)          Rapporteur: Grisell Medina Laguna, National Water Commission, Mexico
17:20-17:50 CET	What is needed where?  Reporting back from breakout groups and discussion on the main needs and priorities at different levels. Return to 16:00CET Day 3 Plenary          Country rapporteurs
17:50-18:00 CET	Summary and closing          Will Reidhead, UN-Water          Pierre Kistler, Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation, Switzerland